INACTIVE WEEK IN CONGRESS BEGINS

Greatest Appropriation Bill in All History Comes Up Next Monday.

Congress settled down today to an inactive week. Acting House Speaker Rainey has announced that next Monday he will expect absent members to be back in their seats for the reception of the greatest appropriation bill in all history, the urgent deficiency measure to finance the war program, estimates for which already run more than $8,000,000,000.

While this measure is being drafted before the House appropriations committee, and while the Senate finance committee is revising the $8,000,000,000 war revenue bill, both houses of Congress are marking time.

Election Day Is Approaching.

Many senators and representatives are out of the city making liberty loan and congressional campaign speeches. With the election less than a month away attendance at the Capitol promises to decrease, and within a fortnight leaders expect to reach a definite decision regarding plans for adjournment over the elections.

The Senate finance committee is expected to report the revised revenue bill by October 25.

Until leaders learn how soon the committee can finish its work, however, the program for adjournment over the elections is being held up.

Informal Recesses Daily.

Informal day-to-day recesses are to be continued this week by the House, awaiting the appropriation committee's report of the emergency Army measure October 14. Its passage probably will require only a few days, and leaders expect that the end of next week the Senate also will have approved the measure and sent it to the President.

Prohibition advocates are hopeful that the Senate and House soon will pass of their controversy over rent profiteering legislation affecting the District of Columbia and allow the war-time national prohibition measure to be sent to President Wilson.

FERDINAND ABDICATES AS SACRIFICE, HE SAYS

Calls Upon All Bulgarians to Rally Around His Son, the New King.

BASEL, Switzerland, October 6.—King Ferdinand in abdicating the Bulgarian throne, according to a dispatch from Sofia, issued the following manifesto: "By reason of a succession of circumstances which have occurred in my kingdom and which demand from each citizen such sacrifice, even to the surrendering of one's self for the well being of all, I desire to give as the first example the sacrifice of myself."

"Despite the sacred ties which for thirty-two years have bound me so firmly to this country, for whose prosperity and greatness I have given all my powers, I have decided to renounce the royal Bulgarian crown in favor of my eldest son, his highness the Prince Royal Boris of Tarnovo."

The abdication of King Ferdinand was announced by Premier Malinoff at a crowded session of the Bulgarian parliament and the news was received by the people with the greatest interest.

The new king will rule under the name of Boris III.

INDIANS ON WAR PATH.

Goshutes, Alleged Draft Opponents, Revolt Third Time in 18 Months.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, October 7.—For the third time in less than eighteen months, Goshute Indians on the Inupah reservation, near Deep Creek, Utah, have gone on the war path, according to information received here. Heavily armed, the Indians have left their reservation and are in the hills. Residents of the Deep Creek country are preparing to protect themselves.

The Army draft is said to be the cause of the revolt. A. R. Frank, superintendent of the Inupah reservation, is in Salt Lake consulting federal officers regarding the course to quell the uprising without bloodshed.

In exchange of felicitations between the Zionists and the Czech-Slavs on the recognition by America and the allied powers of their national aspirations, Dr. Thomas G. Mazaryk, speaker of the national council of the Czech-Slavs, outlined broadly liberal policy which his nation will adopt toward the national minorities which will be contained within its boundaries.

He made the definite statement that the Czech-Slavs will abolish the immoral and oppressive Austrian system of state churches, which made possible the misuse of the churches and religion for political ends, and that the national minorities will be granted equal political and cultural rights with the majority. This policy, Dr. Mazaryk declares, will apply to the Jews in Bohemia and Slovakia as well as to the other races.

Of Zionism he says that from his personal contact with it and its leaders in Europe and America he knows that it is not a narrow chauvinistic movement, but one of moral regeneration.

"Our future state we conceive as extending on the whole within the given historical boundaries," said Dr. Mazaryk. "That implies that there will be some national minorities living in Bohemia and Slovakia is so close that a radical territorial dismemberment is impossible, for we cannot afford to lose thousands and thousands of our people, and we do not wish to suppress the minorities of other nationalities. There remains, therefore, only one just arrangement—to grant the minorities equal rights in public life and schools—and that has been always our national program and offer to the Germans."

"As a matter of fact the same program applies to the Jewish minority. The Jew will enjoy the same equal rights as the rest of the citizens of our state. Besides, I must emphasize that we will abolish the immoral and oppressive Austrian system of state churches misusing the churches and religion for political ends."

"As far as the Zionist movement is concerned I can only express my sympathy with it and the national movement among the Jewish people in general, because it is of great moral value. I watched the Zionist and the national movement of the Jews in Europe and in our country, and I learned that it is not a movement of political chauvinism, but of moral regeneration of your nation."

Serbian Prince Now a General.

CORFU, Sunday, October 6.—Prince Alexander of Serbia has been promoted to the rank of general by King Peter in recognition of his victories during the Macedonian offensive. The Serbian government wished to make this promotion effective June 1, 1918. Alexander asked that it be deferred until after a victory had been won.

BUY YOUR LIBERTY BOND

It is absolutely necessary that every good American do something to help bring the war to an end. You are going to buy a Liberty Loan Bond, of course. WHY NOT TODAY? If the entire issue is taken before the end of the period set for the campaign, that in itself will have an influence toward bringing the war to a successful conclusion. The thing must be done. Let's do it enthusiastically and quickly.

CZECHO-SLAVS WILL BE LIBERAL IN POLICY

Dr. T. G. Mazaryk So Tells Zionists in Exchange of Felicitations Over Recognition by America.

In exchange of felicitations between the Zionists and the Czech-Slavs on the recognition by America and the allied powers of their national aspirations, Dr. Thomas G.
